Dementia Action Week 2022

Dementia Action Week is Alzheimer's Society's biggest and longest running awareness campaign. Each year, we work with individuals and organisations across the UK to encourage people to 'act on dementia'. This year's diagnosis themed campaign ran from 16-22 May.

Throughout Dementia Action Week, our Managing Director Ben Selby was helping out at the Nantwich Chatty Bench to chat about living with dementia to anyone who wanted to talk.

Many shops in Nantwich were supporting Dementia Action Week, with banners and balloons on show in their windows.

What is Dementia Action Week?

Dementia Action Week is an awareness raising campaign. Each year, we work with individuals and organisations across the UK to encourage people to 'act on dementia'.

This year's Dementia Action Week encouraged people who are concerned that they or someone they know may be experiencing dementia symptoms to seek further help. We provided information on memory loss, advice on talking to the GP, and ways to cope with memory loss.

If you or a loved one are experiencing memory loss, it could be a sign of something more serious. This advice will help you understand if your symptoms are related to dementia.
