

What is multiple sclerosis?

Multiple Sclerosis
Trust

MS

Multiple sclerosis (MS) is a condition which affects the central nervous system, that is the nerves in the brain and spinal cord. 'Sclerosis' means scarring or hardening of patches of tissue. 'Multiple' because this happens in more than one place.

Facts about MS

What are the symptoms?

- Walking problems
- Vision issues
- Pins and needles
- Sexual issues
- Fatigue
- Bowel problems
- Spasms
- Depression
- Bladder issues
- Anxiety
- Cognitive issues
- Speech problems

How can the MS Trust help?

Our FREE enquiry
service: 0800 032 3839
ask@mstrust.org.uk

Our trusted publications offer
practical MS info
visit: mstrust.org.uk

Our social media
channels keep you up to date with the latest MS developments

Regular newsletters
and our Open Door
magazine, keep you well informed